FOOTBALL.

CHALLENGE SHIELD COMPETITION.

HONGKONG F.C. v. ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE, 0.

The Hongkong F.C. played an ill balanced team on Saturday, in the semifinal round of the Challenge Shield Competition against St. Joseph's College, and it was not surprising that they were unable to qualify for the final. Indeed, it was owing to some really meritorious play by Tonkin and Black at back that the College did not win. If the Club wants to beat the College when the match is re-played next Saturday, the forward line must be strengthened by the inclusion of Reichelmann or Boyson.

The Club missed McTavish badly, and Neal, who took his place, made but a poor substitute. Neal is too fond of doing flashy bits of dribbling with the ball when he is alone with it, instead of getting a move on. Hamilton was so well marked by Kayser that he was only able to show occasionally what a fine player he is.
Stalker was seldom or never in his place.
Rodger, the best forward on the side on Saturday, was comparatively starved, for Neal would insist on passing to Hamilton instead of to Rodger, who was not so well marked. His did not shine. It is apparent that the Club forward line will have to be reconstituted if the Club are going to win the competition, which their supporters are expecting them to do. Rodger might be tried as Hamilton's partner, and Neal put back into his real place, inside left.

The Club defence missed Stewart, who has not yet recovered from a recent injury.
The game might have ended differently if he had played, because the heavy ground would not have been such a disadvantage to him as it was to Ralston, who came into the team in his stead. Ralston who played centre forward, played the hardest game of this season, but he is undoubtedly a better right half than a centre. The fact is, the lighter College players showed the Club defenders a clear pair of heels owing to the state of the ground. Tonkin and Black—the last line of defence, played a great game, particularly the latter, who was always concentrated and never missed his kicks.

The College had the better of the game, and would have had a better chance of winning if they had indulged in less combination. Forwards like Hyndman and Silva can always run through on their own if there are only the two backs and the goal-keeper to beat. The forwards did this best, but one cannot lose the impression that they missed a good chance of beating the Club. Omar did many a speedy run on the right, but his centres were inaccurate. The same can be said of Rahmin. Sepher was the best half on the ground, while Ogley and Xavier, his partners, used their speed to good advantage. Dixon played a very fine game at back, letting nothing pass him. Hyndman, not yet fit for football, pluckily turned out, and did as well as could be expected of him.

THE PLAY.
The College started very well, and went away to the Club goal at the commencement of the game. Tonkin and Black seemed temporarily outplayed, especially when, for a minute, the College looked like scoring. Omar outran Macphail and Tonkin and had a shot at goal. The Club supporters breathed easier when Rodger cleared. Soon the Club forwards got into their stride, and, combining with their usual accuracy, they made several incu-sions into the College territory. Omar was tested on one occasion, and cleared easily. On the other occasions, the Club forwards found their match in the faster and nippy College defenders. For the rest of the half the game consisted of a series of attacks by each line of forwards.
At first the College forwards seemed the more convincing—they ran round the Club halves and gave Black and Tonkin many an anxious moment.
During this time Rahmin and Xavier came in for much applause. The Club goal was never really in danger, but the Club defence was very severely tested, and it was only in

CORRESPONDENCE.

SOCIETY OF ST. GEORGE.

HONGKONG ANNUAL MEETING.

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG DAILY PRESS"]

SIR,—I should feel greatly obliged if you would kindly publish the following for the information of the members of the above society. I feel quite justified in publishing the correspondence and comments on same, owing to the extremely short notice. The first advertisement appeared in the morning papers of Saturday last, none being in the evening papers, and the meeting is to take place to-day, 15th inst., at 3.30 p.m.

To John Bentley, Esq.,

Hon. Secretary, Society of St. George,

Hongkong.

DEAR SIR,—I see that the annual meeting of the above society is advertised to be held on Monday next, 15th inst.

Would you be good enough to inform me:

(1) Whether the report and statement of accounts which is to be placed before the members at the meeting has been circulated amongst the members. I have not received a copy.

(2) Whether a list of members has been circulated so that members can choose for themselves who they consider best to serve on the committee.

(3) Whether, if the report and accounts have not been circulated before the meeting, it is not possible to give notice of business which might arise out of a report, etc., which will not be seen by any of the members, excepting the committee, until the meeting.

Thanking you for a reply—

Yours truly,

B. L. FROST.

[REPLY.]

To B. L. Frost, Esq.

Present.

DEAR SIR,—In reply to your letter of to-day's date, for which I am obliged, I would state that—

(1) No report or statement of accounts has been circulated to any members.

At the meeting members will receive the report of the Committee in the Chairman's speech.

Copies of the accounts will be available for such of the members as may attend the meeting.

This is in accordance with precedent and does not conflict with the rules of the Society.

(2) No list of members has been recently circulated to members. I shall be pleased to give you inspection of my list, which is up-to-date, if you wish to see it.

(3) You misinterpret the meaning of clause (d) of the agenda. Members are not required to give the notice of any other business.

Notice means notice given to members.

So far no notice of any other business has been sent to members or advertised—Yours faithfully,

John Bentley,

Hon. Secretary.

From the above it will be seen that another farce is about to take place in an annual meeting of a Society whose membership, I am informed, stands at over 400, being held without proper notice, and the committee elected without the majority of the members knowing who the other members are.

In Mr. Bentley's reply to my letter he says, "Copies of the accounts will be

BRITISH AND FOREIGN BIBLE SOCIETY.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE

HONGKONG AUXILIARY.

The annual meeting of the Hongkong Auxiliary takes place to-morrow at 3.15 p.m. at the Helena May Institute. The Bishop of Victoria will preside and addresses will be given by the Rev. G. R.

Lindsay, M.A., and Mr. Shueh Hsu,

M.A.

Following is the Report of the Committee for the year 1919, which bears the signature of the Rev. T. W. Pearce, as Honorary Secretary:—

Methods of service approved by experience in former years have been followed in the clear aims and established policy of the Bible Society have been kept steadily in view; and patient endeavour has not been wanting to quicken and deepen in the Chinese local Churches, appreciation of the place which the Bible Society holds in relation to the Church in many lands.

Changes always incident to life in this Colony have affected the personnel of the Committee of the Ladies Committee and of the Depot control. To-day's list of clergy and ministers of local Churches on whose advocacy of its claims this Auxiliary is accustomed to rely, is further suggestive of changes within this sphere.

It is the more satisfactory to add that for helpers held in grateful memory, for their work's sake, during residence here, their successors have been found. As a result activities were well maintained and the Treasurer's statement indicates further advance in the amount contributed from Hongkong to the British and Foreign Bible Society.

Bible Sunday in the Churches was duly observed. Information, in English and in Chinese, furnished by the Society's China Agency in Shanghai, was placed at the disposal of those chiefly concerned in its effective dissemination. It is proper to emphasize in this connection the value in Hongkong of pamphlet literature, containing the most recent summaries of incidents and events within the field of translation and distribution.

Issues of Scriptures, from the Depot in Lower Wyndham Street, reached a total of 5,514 copies. This includes Bibles, New Testaments, and separate Portions, in English, in Chinese and in other languages Western and Eastern. There was received from sales the sum of $1,346.99.

A further 310 copies of the Scriptures were circulated from the Depot in Kan-gong Sub-agency, covering an extensive area, there were sold, under the supervision of missionaries, 8,477 copies of the Scriptures and by collectors, under the direction of the Society's Sub-Agent, 15,310 copies. In Indo-China, a territory comprised within the same Sub-Agency, 22,784 copies of the Scriptures were in circulation.

Market improvement in the appointments of the Hongkong Depot affording increased and attractive facilities for the transaction of business, have been made by a zealous sympathetic adviser, to whom this Auxiliary has long been indebted for the wisest personal concern in this branch of its operations.

During the period under review members of this Auxiliary have enjoyed the advantages on which they set a value, consultation with the Rev. H. E. Anderson, the B. F. B. S. Sub-Agent having his headquarters in Hongkong. Mr. Anderson's Report for the year deals with the more extended endeavours of the Society by colportage on the railway, on ships and by colportage in the thickly populated districts lying to the South of the West

"THE DIRECTORY AND CHRONICLE."

"The Directory and Chronicle" makes its fifty-eighth annual appearance to-day.

It is being issued rather later than usual this year, but the delay is due solely to the determination of the compilers to bring the volume thoroughly up-to-date and therefore means a gain to the subscribers. It is probably not an exaggeration to say that not more than one-third of the names in the alphabetical index—extending over 175 pages—remain unchanged from last year.

The familiar red covers contain some 1,600 pages, exclusive of advertisements, or 120 more than last year. All the family features which have made this work of reference indispensable in every business house of importance in the Far East are retained. For the first time since the war the ships—and, as far as known, the personnel of H.B.M.'s Squadron in these waters are enumerated, as well as the U.S. Asiatic Squadron and the Japanese

Navy. With the return of more normal conditions, also, it has been found possible to restore the coloured maps of the principal ports and European settlements in the Far East. Naturally, in a work intended as a volume mecum to merchants, the revised Chinese Customs Tariff has been embodied.

 the Gymkhana Club be altered to read as at present with the addition after the word 'Navy' of the words 'Nor to widows who have not re-married or past members of the Gymkhana Club or to Should the above Resolution be duly passed, the subjoined Resolution will be proposed:—

 "That widows who have not re-married of past members and wives and unmarried daughters and sisters of present members, shall (subject to the approval of a majority of the Committee) be entitled to enter and run horses and/or

HONGKONG, MARCH 15TH, 1920.

LABOUR AND POLITICS.

It is satisfactory to learn that the Trades Union Congress of the United Kingdom, which was called to consider what action should be taken to compel the adoption of the nationalisation of mines, voted very decisively against "direct action," preferring to continue political action to that end. Doubtless there were mixed reasons for this decisive rejection of the policy of "direct action," but probably the consideration advanced by Mr. CLYNN at the Congress had as great an influence as any. Mr. CLYNN declared that Mr. LEON GEORGE would welcome a general strike on the question, for he would then give them a General Election in conditions which would find the Labour class rent in twain, while all the other classes would be united to fight what would be regarded as an aggressive step. That is just what Labour would wish to avoid, for Labour appears to have very confident hopes of winning a General Election at no distant date, and is therefore, the more reconciled to political action. There is no doubt as to which way the wind has been blowing at recent bye-elections at Home. The Labour vote has increased to a very significant degree. The figures for nine constituencies disclose that the Labour vote in bye-elections increased from 38,723 to 97,473, and in these same constituencies, the Coalition vote had reduced from 86,477 to 79,038.

 Elections have been going against the Government, and the tendency has been for the voters to support Labour candidates. There is every reason to suppose that the tendency will continue and develop. Certainly no illusion exists in political circles about what is happening. The possibility of Labour carrying the country at the next General Election is talked of, or, if not then, at the next succeeding Election. The idea, perhaps, seems far fetched and extravagant, but in these days things happen that a few years ago would have been dismissed as impossible. "Labour," says the Times in a leading article dealing with the Spen Valley bye-election, "is in the ascendant, and if it recruits its forces from the educated middle classes, giving thereby hostages to social continuity, its further progress is assured." There are some acute observers who are convinced that the recruits referred to are already coming along. Sooner or later, these say, a considerable section of the middle classes will join forces with Labour.
 Probably they will supply Labour with leaders. There would, of course, be a precedent for this, because in the past the so-called "intellectuals" of the Labour movement have been middle class men and women. It was they who presented Labour with a constructive programme in the guise of Fabian tracts—largely theoretical conceptions of government, it is true, and intensely Socialistic, and in many respects wholly unsound; but all the same a programme that was calculated to enlarge the political vision of the masses previously content to restrict their outlook to Trade Union activities about hours and wages. To-day very large numbers of manual workers are in receipt of income as large as that of professional men; and inevitably the old lines of demarcation between the working classes and the middle classes is being obliterated, to some extent at least. A common platform may be found for political purposes; and probably it will. Some such development is not outside the range of practical politics. The bye-elections are showing that great changes are approaching in the political world; and the next few years will be of extraordinary interest and importance. And of course a certain piquancy is imparted to the changes in prospect by the enormous electoral influence possessed by women. The absorbing question will be "How will the women vote?"

Lieut.-Com. C. W. C. J. Nowell has been appointed to H.M.S. Tanager, as superintendent of the Chart Depot, Hongkong.
 Mr. H. A. V. Booth, a new Police officer, has arrived in the Colony and has taken up duties at the Central Police Station.
 Three cases (two deaths) of cerebrospinal fever and two cases (one death) of diphtheria were reported in the Colony on Friday.
 Mr. C. W. Jeffries has been appointed to act as Director, Royal Observatory, during the absence on leave of Mr. T. F.
 Claxton, or until further notice.
 The erection of three detached houses as senior officers' quarters at Mount Gough is being undertaken by the Public Works Department and tenders are invited.

The Colonial Secretary informs us that the name of the new Volunteer Corps will

The few Germans at present in Peking are said to be working hard to assist the new German Government in re-opening commercial relations and re-establishing the diplomatic staff.

Chinese tea merchants at Hankow are reported to have approached the Government for financial assistance to enable them to tide over present difficulties until the beginning of the season.

It is announced that a new class of beginners at the Chinese Language School held under the auspices of the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce will begin on April 5th if sufficient support is forthcoming.

According to official returns, ships above 1,000 tons gross, launched in Japan during February, numbered seven, representing 41,412 tons. They include the Eastern Cloud, Eastern Temple, Daker Maru and Rocky Maru.

H.E. the Governor has been pleased, provisionally and pending the receipt of instructions from His Majesty's Government, to recognise Mr. A. L. C. de Albuquerque as being in charge of the Consulate for Portugal in Hongkong.

The American experts who are undertaking construction of the new Tokio hotel announce that it will be "entirely in New York style." It is suggested that similar hotels may be built at Kioto, Nara, and Nikko.

Mr. H. H. Gilbey, who is now Superintendent of the Eastern Extension Telegraph Company at Penang, and was formerly in Hongkong for many years as 2, is retiring and proceeding home to rejoin Mrs. Gilbey.

Mrs. Harry Woods and the Misses Woods leave to-morrow for Swatow, where they have been engaged to give dancing instruction for two weeks.
 Their session of teaching in Hongkong has proved remarkably successful.

Mails seem to be more demoralized as time goes on, all over the East. The Japan Gazette says:—Recently a letter from Hongkong was 53 days in transit to Yokohama, and a local letter 23 days from the P.O. to the Fairmont Hotel on the Bluff.

The Hongkong Observatory returns state that during February the average mean temperature was 58.8. The highest point reached was 77 on the 1st, and the lowest 49.3 on the 9th. There were only 24.6 hours of sunshine and 2.64 inches of rain. The average humidity was 84.

It is revealed in the second volume of "My Diaries," by Wilfred Owen Blunt that Sir Charles Eliot would have been appointed successor of Sir Eldon Gorst in Egypt, in 1911, but for the opposition of Lord Lansdowne, with whom he had come in conflict over the question of Uganda.

Professor Morito of Tokio University, has been sentenced to two months' imprisonment for violation of the Press Law, in connexion with the publication of an article on Kuroptokin's socialism. The article appeared in the University Economic magazine. The editor and publisher, Professor Ouchi, was fined ¥40.

Mr. A. G. M. Fletcher, O.B.E., has been appointed to act as Colonial Secretary during the absence on leave of the Hon. Mr. Claud Severn, C.M.G., LL.B., or until further notice, and Mr. W. J.
 Carrie has been appointed to act as Assistant Colonial Secretary and Clerk of Councils until further notice.

The explosive signals or fog guns at Waglan have been going almost continuously during the past week, and more gunpowder has been consumed already this year in this way than is usually consumed in twelve months. We learn that the two guns, firing every twelve minutes, were kept going for 194 hours without a break last week.

The stock of silver in Shanghai on the 12th inst. comprised Tls. 30,360,000 and 115,850,000 and Tls. 11,255,000 in silver dollars and bars. These figures include Tls. 10,430,000 and $8,840,000 in Chinese banks, in which there were no bars.
 Arrivals during the preceding week were 3,674 bars silver and 7,000,000 silver dollars from America. The P.M.R.
 Ecuador, was due to arrive with specie to the value of about $3,000,000.

The sympathies of many will be with Sir Charles Eliot, K.C.M.G., British Ambassador to Japan, on the death of Mrs. Eliot, his mother, which took place at Sheffield on January 30th. Mrs. Eliot was very well known in Sheffield, where she had resided since Sir Charles Eliot was appointed Vice-Chancellor of Sheffield University. When Sir Charles left Sheffield for Hongkong Mrs. Eliot took up her residence with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gibbons, daughters.

Mr. Christopher Wilson, who before the outbreak of the war was associated with Mr. M. J. D. Stephens under the style of Stephens and Wilson, solicitors, etc., has recently returned to the Colony. Mr.
 Wilson, who saw service in the Boer War, rejoined the army in 1915, and rose to the rank of Major. He saw much service in France and later in the region of Archangel. Major Wilson, who understand, will be taking over the Government of Victoria Gaol on the departure on leave of Mr. J. W. Franks.

Many old friends of Mr. E. H. Hinds in Hongkong will be interested to learn that he is still keen on his billiards.
 In the sixth heat in the Amateur Billiard Championship, Mr. Hinds beat Mr.
 Dudley Fry by 53 points after an exciting game. The result was in doubt practically until the end. Mr. Hinds had a certain amount of luck in his favour, and without detracting in any way from his performance, this made just the difference of a fine break of 81. Mr. Fry, however, took the lead again at 1,876, and after that, the score was called 1,884 all.
 From that point, however, Mr. Hinds managed to retain the lead.

Messrs. Liberty & Co., of Shanghai, in their latest Piece Good, Report say:
 "Agricultural prospects throughout the country are considered to be favourable, for, following an exceptionally dry winter all up the Yangtze and in the North, generous falls of snow came down everywhere at, before, and after China New Year, and the crowning omen, the weather of the 8th day of the first moon-broke fine, and has remained so since." In a country dependent upon agriculture for its prosperity, and the majority of whose people are engaged in the production of food, the signs are those connected with the land and its produce, the important bearing which the crops have upon the general prosperity and consequent demand for imported goods, is not to be underestimated.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

THE BRITISH CHINA TRADE

BUREAU.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

LONDON, January.

(Delayed in transmission)

BRITISH CHINA TRADE BUREAU.

A note which I have received from the Federation of British Industries states that the British China Trade Bureau—the publicity Bureau for South China—has been transferred from the offices it has occupied in Regent Street to the headquarters of the Federation in St. James's Street. This is described as a step in the direction of practical co-operation between manufacturers and merchants.

The communication above referred to goes on to say that Mr. Montague Ede, General Manager of the Union Insurance Society of Canton, Ltd., is responsible for having induced the Federation to assume the direction of the Bureau in this country. As readers on your side are aware, the Bureau was inaugurated in order to provide an essential link between the home manufacturer and the distributing merchant in China on the one hand, and the millions of people in this country on the other.

In future the direction of the Bureau's activities in London will be placed under the superintendence of Mr. Henry Hob-den, who is now in charge of the China Section of the Overseas Trade Department of the Federation. He is recognised as an authority on trade conditions in China, and during the latter part of the war was one of Sir Arthur Steel-Maitland's principal assistants in the Overseas Department of the Board of Trade. During this period he had charge of the Far Eastern Section. He is a man of extraordinary ability, possessing marvellous powers of organisation, and has besides a most charming personality.

THE LEADING SPIRIT

Mr. Montague Ede was, of course, as you know, the leading spirit in the steps that were taken to establish the China Trade Bureau. He was one of the band of patriotic and public spirited gentlemen connected with the commercial life of Hongkong who realised that some form of propaganda on behalf of British trade was necessary if British enterprise was to make headway against the activities of other nations in the China market. It is especially due to his efforts that the Federation has taken over the London organisation of the Bureau.

THE IRON-MOULDERS' STRIKE.

This week, happily, we shall see the end of the iron-moulders' strike, the most lamentable of the many industrial disruptures that has taken place in recent years.
 It has lasted over 15 weeks. Another week or two must elapse before the men are all back and work is in full swing again. The strike was for an advance in wages, and was, as is usually the case, complicated by side issues. The men acting against the wishes of their leaders, came out on a demand for 15/- a week increase, refusing to accept a rise of 5/- offered them, and the consideration of other distressing questions. Now, after enduring much suffering in which their families were also inevitably involved, they are returning to work on the terms which they would have already got had they stuck to their agreement, instead of precipitating a struggle.

As a Union the moulders only number some 50,000 members, but their's is a "key" industry supplying the castings upon which the engineering and allied trades are dependent. Their action had the effect, therefore, of throwing idle upwards of a quarter million workers in other trades, and probably an estimate which places the financial loss to the nation owing to the strike at a hundred millions sterling is not far wide of the mark.

One of these days the proposal which has often been made to compel workmen to submit their demands to a Court of Industrial Arbitration will find its way on to the Statute Book. The action of this small Union of highly skilled men in upsetting the industry of the country, and hampering production for over six months at a stretch will help to hasten that desirable end.

CONFIDENCE OF CAPITAL.

In spite of strikes and rumours of strikes it is satisfactory to know that capital has no fear as to the future of British industry. According to information I have received from an authoritative source the number of companies registered and the amount of capital invested during the past year surpassed anything hitherto experienced.

The registrations in the United Kingdom in the last six months numbered 6,000, with a capital of about £280,000,000.
 This huge total is contributed to in nearly equal volume by public companies (£125,000,000) and private (£125,000,000).
 Textiles and clothing represent thirty millions, which is not surprising, seeing that most fabrics sell at four times their pre-war price; mines are returned at twenty-four times their value; shipping twenty-two, and oil over twenty millions.

Altogether 48 companies in the list of registrations represent an aggregate capital of £290,000,000. In the year before the war the average capital of companies registered was just over £21,000. Last year the average was well over £45,000.
 The reason given for this is that owing to the depreciation of the value of the value of the pound sterling it now takes more money to engage in, or carry on, business enterprise.

LABOUR AND THE BY-ELECTIONS.

The victory of Mr. Myers, Labour candidate in the Spen Valley by-election, is hailed by the anti-Conservative Press as a virtual defeat for the Government.
 They interpret the return of Mr. Myers over both the Coalition candidate, Col. Fairfax, and the Independent Liberal, Sir John Simon, as "the writing on the wall." But the result is not so full of meaning as that. Some allowance should be made for the folly of Captain Guest, the Coalition Chief Whip, in pitting Colonel Fairfax against Sir John Simon, who was already in the field against Labour. The intervention of the machine "is always resented, and particularly was the case in Yorkshire, always noted for its independence.

Interference from Downing-street in the selection of candidates for Parliament was never more to be deprecated than at present. There is an almost entirely new electorate. There are new questions, and new crises; and, more important still, new parties are in course of formation, however unwelcome that fact may be for old-fashioned political wire-pullers.
